

THE VECINO GROUP
Housing for the greater good.

J Christopher Ball, AIA, NCARB

VICE PRESIDENT OF ARCHITECTURAL SERVICES

ABOUT

Chris is Vice President of Architectural Services at the Vecino Group. Overseeing a team of architects, engineers, and designers, Chris is responsible for developments nationwide. Multifamily. P3. Student. Commercial. Education. Residential. With nearly 25 years as a working Architect—many of those spent as the President and Principal of a small regional design firm—Chris has worked on every line of business, from various perspectives. Chris Ball is also an active member of AIA. He has held leadership positions on the AIA Strategic Council as well as at the local, state and regional level.

EXPERIENCE

2016–PRESENT Vice President of Architectural Services

THE VECINO GROUP

Oversees team of architects and engineers through architectural planning, promotion and design for all Vecino projects. Responsibilities include involvement from early planning to project completion including research, setting goals, budgeting, engineering, design, planning and final development.

1994–PRESENT President/Principal Architect

JACK BALL ARCHITECTS PC

Oversees team of architects, designers and engineers. Project depth ranges from new construction to major additions and complete remodels.

SKILLS

- > Understanding of history, cultural, and environmental concerns
- > Analyze and critically assess problems to develop solutions
- > Licensed architect in Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas & Nevada
- > A/E Firm Management - coordination and interpersonal skills to manage a complex project team
- > Technical understanding & implementation of building materials and elements

AFFILIATIONS

American Institute of Architects (AIA)

AIA Central States Region

AIA Missouri Board of Directors

AIA Springfield

Missouri Board for Architects, Professional Engineers, Professional Land Surveyors, and Landscape Architects

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Architecture

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS - LAWRENCE, KS